

Premier Protector — Builder's Risk™

Inland marine for projects and portfolios

Whether you're a contractor with multiple concurrent jobs, or a property owner with capital improvements on the horizon, Premier Protector — Builder's Risk, offers the flexible program structure and broad builder's risk coverage you need, with a clearly written, easy-to-understand policy you want.

Clear structure and language

Whether you're at the beginning of a project, or your relationship is drawing to a close, uncertainties and inconsistencies with policy terms are eliminated with Premier Protector — Builder's Risk. Our intuitive structure, format, and clear language highlights terms, coverages, deductibles, and limits all on the declarations front and center.

The right coverage tailored to your needs

The flexibility that's built into our Premier Protector — Builder's Risk allows you to protect your projects as they change over time. This program allows options for:

Single project

Coverage for the most basic projects, to the most complex.

Master builder's risk

Coverage for your entire portfolio with pre-established rates and terms and conditions that integrate all of your coverage needs.

Certified in-house engineers

Our dedicated property risk engineers work with you to help lower your total cost of risk. With deep engineering and construction expertise, they'll identify exposures, quantify costs, and recommend practical solutions.

Dedicated inland marine underwriters

Our team of dedicated inland marine underwriters have the industry expertise to create a customized program for your business. Located throughout the country, their primary goal is to build a strong and lasting relationship with you and your broker.
